Unauthorized generosity isn't always this obvious. So your need for a smarter digital video recorder is clear. Simply put, you need Image Vault. Just plug in your cameras, connect any RS-232 devices like POS cash registers, tell Image Vault what you want captured, and watch it go to work. You can even access Image Vault remotely. Powerful, intuitive, and totally affordable: ask your security dealer about Image Vault. Then tell Miss Congeniality the house isn't buying anymore.
