FireKing
The best records protection you can buy.

Have you ever thought about what would happen if your home or business were exposed to fire or water damage? How can you rebuild your life without your bank account numbers, birth and marriage certificates, titles, deeds and other critical documents? These important documents need to be protected from the very real risk of water, fire and smoke damage.

This is where fire and water resistant chests come into play. A fire and water rated box gives you a safe place to stash your items away from the risk of both potential disasters. FireKing's water resistant and fire rated chest options keep everything from your birth certificate and passport to your valuables protected from fire and water. Whether you are safeguarding business records or personal items, you will find the protection you need from FireKing®.
